Behind My Mask - Who am I Really?

Being True to Myself in My Private and My Working Life.

Dear Karin,

This two day course is for everyone who wants to have a life, both personally and professionally, in accordance with who you are and what you believe in. Come to this workshop, to align who you are on the inside with what you show on the outside. The aim is a fulfilling career and positive relationships based on your true values, needs and wishes.

Behind My Mask - Workshop: More Information.

- Is your heart not in it?
- Does your life look good on the outside, but you feel unhappy within?
- Is it time to be recognised for who you are, not for who you pretend to be?
- Does it feel as if you are living a lie?
- Are you fed up with putting on a "Fake Happy Face"?
- Do you long for a job that matters to you, based on your own values?
